Dear Families,

Welcome back to the first full school week for the 2016. It has been fantastic to see the Transition students and our new students across the school find their feet and become part of Holy Spirit school community. This week I have been lucky enough to spend time in each of the classes assisting with academic work and taking physical education lessons with some of the junior classes. I’m reminded each day of the vibrant and Christ filled community that is Holy Spirit.

This Friday night families are all welcome to come to Casuarina Pool and bring along a picnic dinner between 5:30pm and 7pm. This is our first family event for the year. This is a great way for new families to become involved with our school community. Don’t forget to bring your bathers. Entry is at pool prices.

SCHOOL COUNSELLOR

Did you know that Holy Spirit has a new school counsellor? We welcome Melissa Lowe to our school as she starts this week. She works at Holy Spirit each Monday.

There are many reasons why parents access counselling for their children, some may be;

- Family relationships
- Separation and divorce issues
- Changes in children’s behaviour
- Social skills
- Stress and anxiety
- Bullying or friendship issues
- Anger or violence
- Problems at school, or any other issues affecting your child’s wellbeing.

Parents are very welcome to speak to the counselor at any time, whether face to face or over the phone. After a referral is made, the counsellor will contact you prior to meeting your child, to discuss any issues. The counsellor will also contact you after counseling starts, to update you on how things are going.

Confidentiality: A good counselling relationship is always based on trust, so all of the information you or your child share with the counsellor is of course, strictly confidential. There are a couple of duty of care situations where a counsellor would be obliged to contact a third party, but these only involve extreme situations where it is disclosed that a person may harm themselves or others.

The Counselling Session: During counseling sessions, the counsellor uses child-focused activities such as play, stories and resources to help children express their feelings and experiences. The counsellor can also assist with referral to other agencies if required. The sessions usually range in time from 15 – 30 minutes and children generally find them a positive and enjoyable experience.

Accessing the Counselling Service: Parents can speak to a teacher, principal or the counsellor about their concerns and the referral forms are located at the Holy Spirit school reception. Melissa can be contacted at CatholicCare NT on 08 8944 2000 or leave a message at the school office.

UNIFORM NEWS...

There will be a 5 – 6 week wait for the new polo shirt in sizes 6, 8, 10 and 14. The office will send out notification of their arrival through the school app and the newsletter.

Size 6, 8 and 10 dresses are now available for purchase. Limited stock available.
Krav Kickboxing Youth Program

Krav Kickboxing is an exciting, high energy sports program that develops discipline, physical fitness, co-ordination and strong self-defence ability. Delivering a core program of combat sports skills and street defensive tactics, it provides kids and teens with a no-nonsense grounding in both striking (Muay Thai, Boxing, Krav Maga) and grappling (Brazilian Jiu Jitsu, Russian Sambo, Judo). The program is designed to build strong skill sets in preparation for the sporting competitive arena (Kickboxing/MMA) as well preparation for the real life situations we all hope our loved ones never have to face.

Krav Kickboxing is ideal for girls and boys with class age groups set at 5-8 years, 9-12 years and 13-16 years. All of our senior Instructional team are either Military or Law Enforcement members who promote responsible behaviour and appropriate use of practical skills, and have “Working with Children” clearance (Ochre Card). Located in Pinelands, a few minutes from the Palmerston CBD, The Progressive Combat Centre is a world class training facility that will most certainly impress.
